Dow team members help raise money for the Salvation Army

Members of management recently spent a day supporting the Salvation Army in North Little Rock.

On a very cold Wednesday in December HR Manager Kenneth Roy, Safety Director David Williams, North Area Manager Craig Scott, Medical Area Manager Todd James, Marketing Manager Robby Matthews, Controller Mike Spinks, Coordinator Roger Strock and Director of Operations Larry Tanner rang the bell to collect money for the Salvation Army in North Little Rock.

The group rang the bell at Mardel's Christian Bookstore in the Gander Mountain Shopping Center in North Little Rock.

According to Salvation Army Major Cindy Wise, head of the North Little Rock center, Dow Building Service solicited the most donations of anyone at the location this year.

Craig really enjoyed the experience: "While it was extremely cold, it felt really good to be able to help those less fortunate during Christmas time."

Todd was also glad to help out: "It was my pleasure to help out the
